

University Swimmers' Travel Meet Policy

Effective September 1, 2008

- When the confirmation forms are sent out to current swimmers all University swimmers who have previously expressed an interest in attending travel meets will be sent an email containing the details of the meet and the deadline for confirming attendance. The forms will be made available to them on the website.
- University swimmers must adhere to the same deadline as current swimmers in order to be entered in the meet. They must also contact the Team Travel Director and advise them if they wish to be a part of the team travel package. They have the option of #1. Full package, Travel, Hotel and Meals #2 Hotel and Meals (no transportation) #3 Their own arrangements
- It will be the responsibility of the swimmer to ensure that the Stingrays' Office Manager has his/her current email address.
- If a university swimmer chooses not to use the travel portion of the package with the rest of the team it will be the swimmer's responsibility to arrange his/her own, meals, travel to and from the meet and to and from their hotel.
- If a university student does not wish to utilize the travel package offered by the club they can make their own arrangements for accommodation, transportation and meals but will still benefit from coaching at the pool.
- While staying with the team the University swimmer must adhere to the Team's code of conduct.
